ATTORNEY-OWNED, SERVING ATTORNEYS

Congratulations! You just received a sales contract.
Now comes all the hard work and headaches...

Handling escrow monies, ordering city certs, surveys, payoffs, completion of DS-1 disclosures, My Decs, and if in a HOA, PALs and 22.1 Disclosures...just to name a few. And then all the documents needed to close a transaction...

As an @ Home Title Services title agent, you can have all of those tasks done for you. Allowing you and your staff to concentrate on other matters of your practice. We even auto fill legal form templates for your review like the Deed, Bill of Sale, Affidavit of Title, power of attorney, and many more.

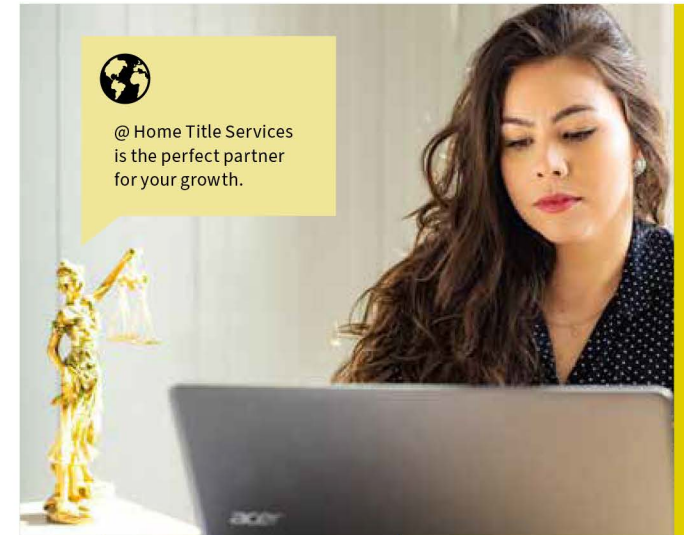

@ Home Title Services has worked with lawmakers, regulators, and counsel across the country to create a program that works for YOU.

We are currently underwritten by nationally recognized underwriters such as:

EDUCATION THAT MATTERS.

@ Home Title Services
is the perfect partner for your growth.

Our proprietary training through @ Home Title University enables you to hit the ground running.

We know the title industry and have created a streamlined process for transactions that utilizes cutting-edge software. All our title agents are rigorously trained with our program so they understand the entire process. Plus all of our transactions are underwritten by nationally recognized underwriters. This ensures that all the necessary documents will be exactly what you need to close, and if a claim does arise, someone will be there to stand behind you. @ Home Title Services provides the resources to our title agents so they have everything needed to succeed.

BECOME AN AGENT TODAY!

You serve your clients every day, in so many ways. It's time to add Title Agent to your suite of services.

@ Home Title Services is not affiliated with any law firm. This means that you can and should maintain your current law firm and simply go through our training program to become a title agent.

The best part? Title agents are compensated at closing. You make more EVERY. SINGLE. TIME.

We don't want your money, we want your success. Providing revenue opportunities for attorneys is our passion.

SEAMLESS CLOSING PROCESS

Want to work with a title company that makes every step easily accessible and understandable to you and your client? We do too!

Collect client information

Our online portal makes it simple to gather information in person or electronically.

Review relevant documents

It's time for you to shine! You examine information as the title agent and provide it to your underwriting team.

Check status & communicate

You have firsthand knowledge of every status change, every question being resolved and you can update the client in real time.

Close & collect

Congratulations for a closing well done. You've earned title agent fees in addition to your legal fee!

We provide our own attorney designed training via Zoom or in person.

How can we help you succeed?

Provide your clients with the services they need.
